

Laboratory Complication Table

Roll d20 at end of each turn while in BoomBoom's Laboratory

Roll	Complication
1-2	Phasing Out: One random character begins phasing out of reality. They must make a CON save or become incorporeal for 1 round (can't interact with physical objects, attacks pass through them).
3-4	Spell Component Explosion: Unstable spell components react violently. All characters within 10 feet make a DEX save or take 2d6 force damage.
5-6	Temporal Echo: A character's actions from moments ago repeat in a different location. Roll a d4 to determine which character is affected, then they must make a WIS save or be forced to repeat their last action.
7-8	Magical Device Malfunction: A random magical device activates unexpectedly. Roll d4: 1=summons a random creature, 2=creates a magical barrier, 3=teleports a random character 20 feet, 4=discharges energy dealing 1d8 damage to nearest creature.
9-10	Reality Flicker: The laboratory flickers between existence states. All characters make a CON save or have disadvantage on their next attack roll or ability check.
11-12	Spell Contamination: Magical energy from failed experiments contaminates the area. The next spell cast has a 30% chance to have its effect reversed or altered randomly.
13-14	Dimensional Leak: A small portal to another plane opens briefly. A random creature or object (DM's choice) falls through or is pulled in. All characters within 5 feet make a STR save or be pulled 5 feet toward the portal.
15-16	Experimental Spell Backlash: Residual magic from BoomBoom's experiments discharges. All spellcasters must make a CON save or lose their highest level spell slot.
17-18	Reality Stabilization Pulse: The stabilization device emits a pulse. All characters make a WIS save. On success, they gain advantage on their next saving throw. On failure, they take 1d6 psychic damage.
19	Brief Stabilization: The laboratory briefly stabilizes. All characters gain advantage on their next ability check or saving throw. Reality complications are reduced for 1 minute.
20	Slow Motion: Each character gains one additional action which they must use on their next turn
